

Storm Advice

Wiltshire Council

Storm advice and information as Storm Ciarán expected to bring strong winds and heavy rain this week

We are advising you to be prepared for high winds, heavy rain and potential flooding as Storm Ciarán approaches the county this week.

There are currently Yellow warnings of both wind and rain affecting Wiltshire on both Wednesday and Thursday of this week, though this may change as the storm approaches, so please check the forecast.